Detailed Itinerary

Day 01 - Hanoi (1 Night)

Hanoi – Vietnam’s capital city for over 1000 years. Upon arrival at the airport, our Sunrays Holyday Tour Manager will guide all guests with airport formalities and lead the way into the city.

(Kindly note that the standard hotel check-in time is typically at 15:00 hrs onwards but may vary depending on the hotel’s policy.)

We visit the Ho Chi Minh Complex – a significant historical and cultural site dedicated to the country’s revolutionary leader, Ho Chi Minh. It is a traffic-free area consisting of several key landmarks and monuments. Here we enjoy a walking tour. We walk to the Ba Dinh Square – a vast open area where many important national events have taken place and take a photo stop outside Ho Chi Minh Museum.

We then visit One Pillar Pagoda – a historic Buddhist temple dating back to the 11th century with its unique architecture of a single pillar rising from a lotus pond and Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum (subject to operation) – here the preserved body of revolutionary leader Ho Chi Minh is housed. We conclude our walking tour with deeper understanding of Vietnam’s rich history. Later we visit Temple of Literature – the first national university of Vietnam built in the 11th century.

In the evening we enjoy a Musical Water Puppet Show – an ancient art form of Vietnamese orchestra acted out by puppets in a pool of water offering authentic Vietnamese experience.
